Please note that any recommendation or opinion in this document is of a general nature only and does not take into account Your objectives, financial situation or needs.

You need to decide if this insurance is right for You and You should read all of the documents that make up the Policy to ensure You have the cover You need.

Understanding the Policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand the significant features, benefits and risks of this insurance You need to carefully read:

- the rest of this "Introduction" section – this sets out how You apply for cover, the basis on which We insure You, the duty of disclosure You need to meet before We insure You, Our privacy information, Our dispute resolution procedures and other important information;

- the "what You are covered for" section – this sets out what liability We cover You for, the limits of what We pay and details of the Deductible You must bear;

Headings are provided for reference only and do not form part of the Policy for interpretation purposes. Words importing persons shall include corporations and other legal entities. The singular includes references to the plural and vice versa.

Applying for cover

When You apply by completing Our application process You need to provide the information We require to determine whether to issue a Policy and if so, on what terms, including (to the extent they are optional):

- the limits You want;
- the period of cover You want;
- whether You want any third parties to be noted as having an interest;
- the Deductibles that You want to contribute for certain claims;
- whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement).

Where We agree to issue a Policy, cover is provided on the basis:

- that You have paid or agreed to pay Us the premium for the cover provided;
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by You which must have given in accordance with Your Duty of Disclosure either verbally or in writing.

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure or have made a misrepresentation to Us, We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the Policy in respect of a claim and/or We may cancel the Policy. If You have told Us something which is fraudulent, We also have the option of avoiding the Policy (ie treating it as if it never existed).

Your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of nondisclosure, are provided under the heading 'Your Duty of Disclosure'

Our contract with You

Where We agree to enter into a Policy with You it is a contract of insurance between Us and You (see the definition of "You" for details of who is covered by this term).

The Policy consists of:

- this document which sets out the standard terms of Your cover and its limitations,
- Your current Policy Schedule issued by Us. The Policy Schedule is a separate document, which shows the insurance details relevant to You.

It may include additional terms, conditions and exclusions relevant to You that amend the standard terms of this document. Only those sections shown as covered in Your Policy Schedule are insured; and

- any other change to the terms of the Policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an endorsement). These written changes may vary or modify the above documents.

These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

We reserve the right to change the terms of this insurance where permitted to do so by law.

Any new or replacement schedule We may send You, detailing changes to Your insurance or the period of insurance, will become the current Policy Schedule, which You should carefully read and retain.

Premium

Your premium – the base premium We charge is calculated based on a number of factors such as:

- Your risk profile and the ratings We apply to Your profile (e.g. the cover and limits required, other persons being insured and Your insurance history etc).
- certain costs incurred by Us in relation to the Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 (Cth); and

- Our obligation to pay relevant government taxes and charges. For example, We include an amount that covers stamp duty and GST payable in relation to the Policy. In cases where We are required to pay an estimated amount (e.g. for Fire Services Levies) based on criteria set by the Government, We allocate to the Policy Our estimate of the amount We will be required to pay. We may over or under recover in any particular year but We will not adjust Your premium because of this. You can ask Us for more details if You wish.

Minimum premiums may apply. In some cases, discounts may apply if You meet certain criteria We set. Any discounts/entitlements only apply to the extent any minimum premium is not reached. If You are eligible for more than one, We also apply each of them in a predetermined order to the premium (excluding taxes and government charges) as reduced by any prior applied discounts/entitlements. Any discounts will be applied to the base premium calculated prior to any taxes being added.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total premium amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be set out in the Policy Schedule, which will be sent to You after the entry into the Policy. If You fail to pay We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy. Special rights and obligations apply to instalment premium payments as set out below.

Instalment premiums

If You pay Your premium by instalments refer to the section for important details on Your and Our rights and obligations. Note that an instalment premium outstanding for 14 days allows Us to refuse to pay a claim.

In some cases a service fee will apply where You select to pay Your premium by instalments. We tell You the total amount payable when You apply and when and how it can be paid. This is confirmed in the Policy Schedule We issue to You.

Your obligation to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy

You are required to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy. Please remember that if You do not comply with any term or condition, We may (to the extent permitted by law) decline or reduce any claim payment and/or cancel the Policy.

If more than one person is insured under the Policy, a failure or wrongful action by one of those persons may adversely affect the rights of any other person insured under the Policy.

How to make a claim

If You need to make a claim under the Policy, please refer to Clause 9 Claims on page 20 of this Policy.

Preventing Our Right of Recovery

If You have agreed not to seek compensation from another person who is liable to compensate You for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by the Policy, We will not cover You under the Policy for that loss, damage or liability except where We agree otherwise under the Contractual Liability Exclusion (clause 5.4), including Incidental Contracts (clause 4.11), or under the Subrogation Waiver (clause 8.17) or in writing.

Cancellation rights under the Policy

How You may cancel the Policy:

- You may cancel the Policy at any time by telling Us in writing that You want to cancel it. You can do this by giving the notice to Your broker (if any) or Us.
- Where there is more than one contracting insured 'We will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all contracting insured named as the insured or from a person authorised to act as agent of all such persons.

Contact for assistance or confirmation of cover

This document also applies for any other renewal We make, unless We tell You otherwise.

It is important that You check the terms of any renewal before renewing to satisfy Yourself that the details are correct.

Please note that You need to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure before each renewal (see below).

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of insurance with Us, You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to Us every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or renewed, extended, varied or reinstated as applicable).

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by Us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with Your duty is waived by Us.

Dispute resolution process – helping You solve any problems

Complaints or disputes are not an everyday occurrence at Allianz. We strive to do things the right way and keep Our customers happy.

Sometimes, complaints or disputes do occur and when this happens, Our objective is to resolve any disagreement as amicably and as quickly as possible. We believe the best way to achieve this is to provide You with an opportunity for an unbiased review of the issue.

Here is what to do if a complaint or dispute arises

Regardless of whether the complaint or dispute involves Our staff, an agent, loss adjuster, assessor, investigator or the service We provide, simply contact Us on 13 2664 8am to 6pm EST, Monday to Friday, speak to one of Our call centre operators and provide them with the details of the issue concerning You. They will attempt to resolve the complaint or dispute; if they are unable to do so they will log it and refer it to the appropriate business unit for resolution.

Within Our organisation We have established a complaints and disputes resolution process. This is a free service. It is a system designed to log, track, escalate and monitor complaints received from clients and customers about Our services and products. A staff member involved in the complaints and disputes resolution process will write to You within 15 working days advising the outcome of the review and reasons for their decision. We do not consider a complaint or dispute to be resolved until a proposed resolution or solution has been communicated to You and You have accepted the resolution or solution.

If You are not satisfied with the outcome of this process

If We are unable to resolve the complaint or dispute, We will offer You the option of referring the matter to the insurance industry's external independent complaints scheme (subject to eligibility).

Terrorism Insurance Act

We have determined that the Policy (or part of it) is a policy to which the Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 applies. We may elect to reinsure part or all of Our liability under the Act with the Commonwealth Government reinsurer, the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation (ARPC).

As a consequence, We may be required to pay a premium to ARPC and that amount (together with the cost of that part of the cover provided by Us and administrative costs associated with the legislation) is reflected in the premium charged to You. As with any other part of Our premium, it is subject to government taxes and charges such as GST, Stamp Duty and where applicable, Fire Service Levy.

For further information contact Allianz or the intermediary.

Goods and Services Tax:

The sum insured that you choose should exclude Goods and Services Tax (GST). In the event of a claim, if you are not registered for GST, we will reimburse you the GST component in addition to the amount we pay you.

If you are registered for GST, you will need to claim the GST component from the Australian Taxation Office.

You must advise us of your correct input tax credit percentage where you are registered as a business and have an Australian Business Number. You are liable to us for any GST liability we incur arising from your incorrect advice.

You must not:

- a) admit liability if an incident occurs which is likely to result in someone claiming against You; or
- b) make any admission of guilt or promise or offer of payment in connection with any such claim, unless We first agree in writing. This applies to You or any other person making a claim under this Policy.

9.3 What We do

We may take over and conduct the defence or settlement of any claim or issue legal proceedings for damages. If We do this We will do it in Your name.

We have full discretion in the conduct of any legal proceedings and in the settlement of any claim. You must co-operate by giving Us any statements, documents or assistance We require. This may include giving evidence in any legal proceedings.

Any amount recovered by Us from a third party shall be applied in the following order of priority:

- a) first to the uninsured proportion of the loss;
- b) second to reimburse Us to the extent of Our actual payment in respect of the claim, and
- c) third, to reimburse You for any Deductible borne by You.

The expenses of such recovery proceedings shall be apportioned between You and Us proportionately in accordance with the apportionment formula set out above. If there is no such recovery by Us, the expenses shall be borne by Us.

9.4 What can affect a claim

We will reduce the amount of a claim by the Deductible shown in the Policy Terms and Conditions or on the Policy Schedule. We may refuse to pay a claim if You are in breach of Your duty of disclosure or any of the conditions of this Policy, including any Endorsements noted on or attached to the Policy Schedule. We pay only once for loss or damage from the same event covered by this Policy even if it is covered under more than one section of the Policy.

We may be entitled to refuse to pay or to reduce the amount of a claim if:

- a) it is in any way fraudulent; or
- b) any fraudulent means or devices are used by You or anyone acting on Your behalf to obtain any benefits under this Policy.

If any liability insured under this Policy arises from a contract or agreement between You and a third party and if the contract or agreement provides for the appointment of an arbitrator, We will be entitled to exercise all of Your rights in the choice of arbitrator and in the conduct of any arbitration proceedings.

An Insured's insolvency or bankruptcy or the insolvency or bankruptcy of an Insured's estate will not relieve Us of any of Our obligations under this Policy.
